

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday, January 4, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Judge: Ayers OK, if ...

Survey: Miss. teen tobacco use down

Musgrove tours training school

Southeastern firms focus of new fund

Subsidy rate for soybeans at risk

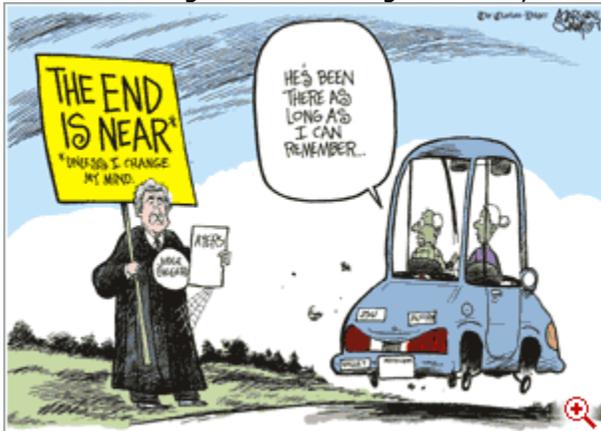

Editorials

Ayers: Funding assurance last hurdle?

Dismal figures: State tax revenue continues to lag

Judiciary: Ethics funding woefully inadequate

Cheating: MSU should target cheaters, too

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Ayers pact may soon get judge's approval

Breaux won't enter governor's race

State spends $45.91 a day to house inmates

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Biggers signals approval of Ayers case

Transcript of Biggers' order

TaylorMade plant to close in Pontotoc

Welfare re-reform -- The 1996 act left men hanging on the fringes

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

• Judge ready to settle Ayers case

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Read Our View

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Magnolia Report

Rep Charlie Capps: 'The absolute last thing that I want to do is go into that trust fund. I really hope that we don't have to get into the tobacco fund, but at the same time I don't want to turn any old ladies away from nursing homes'

Battle brewing between lawmakers and Musgrove over tobacco fund

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Judge asks for legislative assurances in Ayers case

State sales-tax collections lagging

Mississippi Business Journal

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Legislature must endorse college settlement

Editorial: Expecting helps make it so

Reed Branson: A leadership deficit

The New York Times

The Washington Post

Jobs: Worst May Be Over